Reading Strategy	All students will be encouraged to make full use of the print and electronic resources available to them through membership of the University. These include a range of electronic journals and a wide variety of resources available through web sites and information gateways. The University Library's web pages provide access to subject relevant resources and services, and to the library catalogue. Many resources can be accessed remotely. Students will be presented with opportunities within the curriculum to develop their information retrieval and evaluation skills in order to identify such resources effectively. Any essential reading will be indicated clearly, along with the method for accessing it, e.g. students may be expected to purchase a set text, be given or sold a print study pack or be referred to texts that are available electronically, etc. This guidance will be available either in the module handbook, via the module information on UWEonline or through any other vehicle deemed appropriate by the module/programme leaders. If further reading is expected, this will be indicated clearly. If specific texts are listed, a clear indication will be given regarding how to access them and, if appropriate, students will be given guidance on how to identify relevant sources for themselves, e.g. through use of bibliographical databases.

Part 3: Assessment

Assessment Strategy

The portfolio will include:

- a critically, analytical commentary on an aspect of your professional practice and the impact on your institution/professional practice/policy development/student awareness
- some evidence to support each section
- a reference list using the Harvard system.

Each student will be allocated a tutor to support their studies. Students will meet with their tutor, or contact them via email, for advice and guidance on the evidence required for the portfolio and the reflective commentary.

The Reflective Commentary

In order to demonstrate that you are functioning at Masters Level in reflecting on practice students will need to:

- Identify and define the chosen area of development of their practice in relation to theoretical and other contexts/frameworks/references.
- Produce evidence of the nature and quality of personal engagement.
- Give evidence of systematic and critical reflection upon and analysis of their practice, including consideration of the nature, boundaries/definitions of the activity in question and motives, causes, influences contributing to a particular development.
- Demonstrate where appropriate the ability to synthesize and to identify new and imaginative connections.
- Illuminate the development of their awareness, identity and personal philosophy.

The commentary should also demonstrate how they engage with relevant literature. Such engagement is a key feature of work at Masters Level.

- Identification of relevant literature. This might include regulatory, official or inspection documentation such as National Standards and professional literature such as school policy documents. There must also be reference to academic literature to show how you have linked theory to practice.
- How they were able to engage with literature and how it helped them to gain insight into their learning and how they were able to use their professional experience to challenge literature where appropriate.

Gathering Evidence

When writing about your chosen area of practice students will need to support this with evidence gathered relating to their role. For example, evidence might include:

- extracts from any personal journal or learning logs you have maintained;
- professional documents which you have drawn up or contributed to in some significant way;
- records and evaluations of staff development/awareness;
- record of meetings with staff you have mentored;
- action plans for your own professional development;
- reflections on the range of professional development opportunities

	you have accessed; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • evaluation of your contribution to some specific aspect of leadership • other relevant CPD activities.
