mak repo	Students on the programme will typically spend more time on campus, working in their team companies than would normally be the case and each team will have its own dedicated space within the 'Team Entrepreneurship' suite. At least one of the Team Coaches will typically be present during normal working hours in the suite.
	The programme is supported by the Blackboard virtual learning environment and makes extensive use of this technology to support discussion groups, share project reports, etc.
Take	aken together, a student will typically receive 80-88 contact hours on this module.
Learning su Methods thi sh 'Do the	Scheduled learning on this module is based around team coaching sessions, supplemented by coach support and giving and receiving peer feedback. During this learning block there will be two x 4 hour team coaching sessions per week, shared with the 'Management Learning and Development (UMCDBT-30-1) and 'Developing a Company' (UMCDBR-30-1) modules. Students will also work with the Team Coach and their peers to develop and refine their Learning Contract as projects and the module unfold.
ap pro	Students will undertake peer coaching and learning projects, and will select appropriate texts that support their practice and deepen their learning on these projects. They will be guided in selecting appropriate reading material from the programme reading handbook by the Team Coach and their peers.

Key Information Sets Information	Key Information Sets (KIS) are produced at programme level for all programmes that this module contributes to, which is a requirement set by HESA/HEFCE. KIS are comparable sets of standardised information about undergraduate courses allowing prospective students to compare and contrast between programmes they are interested in applying for.					. KIS are rses allowing

	On this module, students will be required to read and review books, refereed journal articles and other published sources totalling 20 book points <sup>1</sup> , at least 5 points of which must be selected from the 'Coaching' and 'Managing People' sections of the programme reading handbook and a minimum of 5 points should consist of readings identified and retrieved independently.
	The programme reading handbook provides an extensive book list across the whole programme. Updated annually to ensure currency, the programme reading handbook is available on Blackboard, as well as in hard copy. It is organised by broad topic area to improve ease of access, whilst still permitting students to select the readings of most relevance to them.
Indicative Reading List	Indicative readings for this module include: Downey, M. (2003) Effective Coaching: Lessons from the Coaches Coach Isaacs, W.R (xxxx) Dialogue: The Art of Thinking Together Kline, N. (1998) Time to Think O' Niell, M.B. (2007) Executive Coaching with Backbone and Heart: A Systems Approach to Engaging Leaders with their Challenges Rogers, J. (2008) Coaching Skills: A Handbook Starr, J. (2010) The Coaching Manual Thornton, C. (2010) Group and Team Coaching

Part 3: Assessment
Assessment Strategy	In keeping with the learning strategy for the module, the assessment strategy has been developed to encourage students to reflect deeply on their experience and their learning and to make strong connections between theory, ideas and concepts and their application in practice. Project reports will include reflections on the implications for ethics and sustainable practice of the project.
	Summative assessment will require the student to enquire into and reflect on their experience of peer coaching, learning in teams and their implications for managing people. This will include book reviews, feedback on how individuals support others learning and a critical reflection on their learning on the module (linked to their group process and team dynamics These will be collected together in an e-learning portfolio. Students are also encouraged to seek feedback on their assignments from peers in their peer coaching sessions.
	As reflective practitioners, students receive formative feedback and assessment throughout the module from, for example, the Team Coach and peers. Students submit book reviews to their e-portfolio throughout the teaching block to fit with the timing of their projects.
	Student team companies keep planners to record submission of book reviews, project reports, training sessions and attendance of team members as part of their workload management activity and are responsible as a company for managing workload of individual members. Team coaches will also monitor e-portfolios at regular intervals, as agreed in the learning contract with each student, so that materials are submitted in a timely fashion on completion of projects.
	Book reviews, project reports and presentations will be scheduled to fit with student projects. The completed learning portfolio will be handed in no later than 6 weeks after the end of the teaching block.

&lt;sup>1</sup> For example, a typical refereed journal article might attract 0.5 book point, whilst a complex book can attract up to 5 book points.
