(Comp A)</li> </ul>
Syllabus Outline	During the initial phase of the study the focus will be on identifying a specific area

	and developing a plan, strategy and study programme relevant to the chosen area. Students will embark on a search of relevant literature with tutorial support. The module will then develop into central investigative activities with tutorial support. The module will culminate in the development of the submission
Contact Hours	Contact time for this module will take the form of independent study guided by supervision from a tutor. It is expected that the tutor will provide the equivalent of 3 hours face to face contact with the student for tutorials in support of their study. This will also include the editing of drafts, online engagement and e-mail contact. Guided study (group &amp; individual tasks, including online engagement): 4 hours Work – related learning activities 68 hours  Total contact scheduled hours 52 hours
Teaching and Learning Methods	Given the varied and eclectic nature of the module the learning approaches will be negotiated between the student and the supporting tutor. Independent learning includes hours engaged with essential reading, case study preparation, assignment preparation and completion etc. These sessions constitute an average time per level as indicated in the table below. This module relies heavily on independent learning organised under the supervision of an academic tutor Workplace learning: This module will involve reflection and evaluation of the workplace and may comprise of an innovation within the workplace. Students will have the opportunity to build upon their work based learning directly .
Key Information Sets Information	Key Information Sets (KIS) are produced at programme level for all programmes that this module contributes to, which is a requirement set by HESA/HEFCE. KIS are comparable sets of standardised information about undergraduate courses allowing prospective students to compare and contrast between programmes they are interested in applying for. <table border="1" data-bbox="459 1473 1369 1863"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="5">Key Information Set - Module data</th> </tr> <tr> <td colspan="4">Number of credits for this module</td> <td style="border: 2px solid black;">30</td> </tr> <tr> <th>Hours to be allocated</th> <th>Scheduled learning and teaching study hours</th> <th>Independent study hours</th> <th>Placement study hours</th> <th>Allocated Hours</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">300</td> <td style="text-align: center;">52</td> <td style="text-align: center;">148</td> <td style="text-align: center;">100</td> <td style="text-align: center;">300</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>  The table below indicates as a percentage the total assessment of the module	Key Information Set - Module data					Number of credits for this module				30	Hours to be allocated	Scheduled learning and teaching study hours	Independent study hours	Placement study hours	Allocated Hours	300	52	148	100	300

IND STUDY Reading Strategy	Essential reading: Students are encouraged to read a wide range of articles and texts concerning the study you wish to engage with some of which are available electronically. There are several texts available which will be listed in the module handbook and a copy of each is provided in the Library. Where texts are available as e-books, these will be available on the library website. Further reading: All students are encouraged to read widely using the library catalogue, a variety of bibliographic and full text databases and Internet resources. Many resources can be accessed remotely. Guidance to some key authors and journal titles available through the Library will be given in the Module Guide and updated annually. Assignment reference lists are expected to reflect the range of reading carried out. Access and skills: Students are expected to be able to identify and retrieve appropriate reading. This module offers an opportunity to further develop information skills introduced at Level 1. Students will be given the opportunity to attend the GDP sessions on selection of appropriate databases and search skills. Additional support is available through the Library Services web pages, including interactive tutorials on finding books and journals, evaluating information and referencing. Sign up workshops are also offered by the Library. Indicative reading list: The list included as part of the module specification provides an indication of the type and level of texts which students might be expected to refer to as part of the work on this module. Current advice on additional reading will be found in the module handbook and on Blackboard.
