Reading Strategy	Access and Skills  Further development of literature searching skills is supported by a Library Plus seminar provided within the first semester and by study skills sessions. Additional support is available through the Library Plus Services and via online resources, including interactive tutorials on finding books and journals, evaluating information and referencing. All students will be encouraged to make use of the print and electronic resources available to them through membership of both the college and the university. These include a range of electronic journals and a wide variety of resources available through web sites and information gateways. Weston College Library's web pages provide access to subject relevant resources and to the library catalogue as well as signposting the University Library's web pages. Many resources can be accessed remotely. This guidance will be available in the programme handbook, module handbook and via module information on the VLE. Essential Reading  Any essential reading will be indicated clearly, along with the method for accessing it. Students may be asked to purchase a set text, be given a print study pack or be referred to texts that are available electronically. Further Reading  Students will be encouraged to read widely using the library catalogue, a variety of bibliographic and full text databases, and Internet resources. Many resources can be accessed remotely. The purpose of this is to ensure students are familiar with current research, classic works and material specific to their interests from the academic literature. All further reading resources will be available via both College and University libraries.
Indicative Reading List	The following list is offered to provide validation panels/accrediting bodies with an indication of the type and level of information students may be expected to consult. As such, its currency may wane during the life span of the module specification. However, as indicated above, CURRENT advice on readings will be available via other more frequently updated mechanisms, including the module guide. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Beech, J. and Chadwick, S. Part 3: Assessment
Assessment Strategy	A range of assessment techniques will be employed to ensure that learners can meet the breadth of learning outcomes presented in this module alongside the ability to demonstrate transferable skills e.g. communication skills. Business Planning Presentation: to reinforce and build on research and key communication skills. Sales pitch will be expected to include information on reading and research. Demonstrating a critical understanding and utilisation of business principles sympathetic to internal and external forces acting upon the proposed enterprise. Business Planning Report: A report that will show research and planning. The document will require learners to demonstrate a critical use of theoretical underpinnings for all aspects including research, planning and decision making. Opportunities for formative assessment exist for the assessment strategy used. Verbal feedback is given and all students will engage with personalised tutorials setting SMART targets as part of the programme design. In line with the College's commitment to facilitating equal opportunities, a student may apply for alternative means of assessment if appropriate. Each application will be considered on an individual basis taking into account learning and assessment needs. For further information regarding this please refer to the VLE.
