Part 3: Teaching and learning methods

Teaching and learning methods: Scheduled learning

A variety of approaches will be used including lectures, seminars, case presentations and small group discussions. All practical work in small groups will be experiential in nature and will encourage exploration of links to theory.

Independent learning

Students will engage with directed reading and materials available on Blackboard as indicated in advance of seminars and lectures.

Scheduled learning will account for around 50 hours on this module and will involve lectures, seminars and small group work. Some lectures will be available via Blackboard so there is virtual learning part of the module and these will be followed up by seminars. Preparation for and completion of the assignments will take up approximately 25 learning hours and 75 hours remain for independent study connected with this module.

Module Learning outcomes: On successful completion of this module students will achieve the following learning outcomes.

MO1 Demonstrate an understanding of current and historical therapeutic concepts, approaches and models and how they impact on and are affected by music therapy

MO2 Critically reflect on established and contemporary music therapy practice and its value in adult health and society

MO3 Demonstrate a critical awareness of context, sub-cultures and cultures as they impact on an adult's range and use of music

MO4 Analyse and reflect on complex, incomplete, unpredictable or contradictory areas of knowledge and practice related to music therapy

Hours to be allocated: 150

Contact hours:

Independent study/self-guided study = 100 hours

Face-to-face learning = 50 hours

Total = 150

Reading list: The reading list for this module can be accessed at readinglists.uwe.ac.uk via the following link <https://uwe.rl.talis.com/modules/uspk7h-15-m.html>

Part 4: Assessment

Assessment strategy: The focus for this module is the integration of theory and practice in music therapy work with adults. Integration of theory and practice can be assessed through recorded extracts of the student's work in viva presentation. The viva assessment involves a powerpoint presentation on a case study including video or audio extracts (20 minutes) followed by a discussion with two examiners for 10-15 minutes. Appropriate theoretical literature should be incorporated in support of the therapeutic material presented.

Formative feedback is built in to the module through seminar teaching and tutorials where drafts and plans can be reviewed. Summative feedback will be in the form of written feedback using the standard marking grid for M level.

Assessment tasks:*Presentation (First Sit)

Description: Viva presentation integrating theory with student's own practice on a particular aspect of music therapy work with adults (45 minutes)

Weighting: 100 %

Final assessment: Yes
