| Teaching and Learning Methods (and contact hours) | Prior placement approval must have been granted by the College, and all attendant paperwork must have been completed and signed off by both the placement provider and the module's placement tutor, BEFORE starting the work placement. Scheduled learning includes tutorials prior to the start of the placement to address the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How to find a suitable work placement. • How to apply for a work placement. • Identifying own skills relevant to placement. • Consideration of future careers. • Models of critical reflection and how to use reflection in practice. Independent learning includes hours engaged with essential reading, portfolio preparation and completion etc. These sessions constitute an average time per level as indicated in the table below. Scheduled sessions may vary slightly depending on the module choices you make. Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) This specification is supported by Moodle where students will be able to find all necessary module information. Direct links to information sources will also be provided from within the VLE. The VLE will be used to develop the critical reflective skills of students. Placement learning: Work-based learning equating to a minimum of 280 hours of approved and verified work experience is a compulsory part of this module. To support the compulsory period of work placement the work placement tutor will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mentor the student throughout the process from selecting placement options, application and interview, through to the end of the placement exit interview with the placement provider. • Help the student to construct a personal development plan/work objective in conjunction with the placement provider. • Monitor progress during the placement with the student and placement provider through remote engagement i.e. phone or skype. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
| Key Information Sets Information | HEFCE require Key Information Sets (KIS) to be produced at programme level for all undergraduate programmes of more than one year in length. KIS are comparable sets of standardised information about undergraduate courses allowing prospective students to compare and contrast between programmes they are interested in applying for. <table border="1" data-bbox="477 1697 1386 2078"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="5">Key Information Set - Module data</th> </tr> <tr> <td colspan="4">Number of credits for this module</td> <td>30</td> </tr> <tr> <th>Hours to be allocated</th> <th>Scheduled learning and teaching study hours</th> <th>Independent study hours</th> <th>Placement study hours</th> <th>Allocated Hours</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>300</td> <td>15</td> <td>5</td> <td>280</td> <td>300</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> | Key Information Set - Module data | | | | | Number of credits for this module | | | | 30 | Hours to be allocated | Scheduled learning and teaching study hours | Independent study hours | Placement study hours | Allocated Hours | 300 | 15 | 5 | 280 | 300 |

Part 3: Assessment

| Assessment Strategy | The module is assessed through a portfolio of academic and personal development which will include controlled and uncontrolled elements. Students will be required to engage with a reflective e-portfolio, containing embedded case studies, developed from working within their selected organisation/s, which will demonstrate the student's ability to effectively apply theory into practice in a workplace context and to reflect on common working practices of their selected organisation/s. The extended placement allows students to set personal goals and targets with tutors and workplace providers. This provides the opportunity for students to monitor and reflect on skill attainment during their work placement. The period of work based learning will also provide the opportunity for students to reflect upon the practical application of knowledge gained upon their programme of study to design future facing personal development plans. Students are encouraged to gain informal formative feedback from their work colleagues and clients during their time in the organisation/s and to use this within their oral presentation and case studies. Throughout the module and portfolio development there will be opportunities for students to receive formative feedback to support them in their practice and reflection to allow them to reflect effectively on their performance and whether it meets industry requirements. Additional opportunities for reflection will occur within tutorials during the placement. Portfolios will be constructed throughout the course of the module and must be completed by the submission date. In line with the Institution's commitment to facilitating equal opportunities, a student may apply for alternative means of assessment if appropriate. Each application will be considered on an individual basis taking into account learning and assessment needs. For further information regarding this please refer to the VLE. |
