STUDENT AND ACADEMIC SERVICES

Part 2: Description

The purpose of this module is to introduce students to both ethical and regulatory frameworks for journalistic practice and to the practical outcome of their application and to enable them to begin to understand key areas of professional concern.

Educational Aims: Students will understand the statutory laws that journalists are expected to know and observe. The module will enable students to understand the court system and the constraints on reporting,

Outline Syllabus: It examines key issues such as compliance, editorial policy and intellectual property, providing students with a thorough grounding in appropriate media law, broadcasting codes, and conventions.

Teaching and Learning Methods: Formal lectures and seminars will introduce key aspects of the module. In addition, there will be a range of master-classes and guest speaker sessions. In addition, students may have the opportunity to attend specialist conferences relevant to the teaching and learning activity.

Students receive formative feedback via tutorial sessions. Students are expected to show initiative, be self-motivated, and committed to developing a professional standard of practice. They must be able to work effectively, both independently and in teams to support each other's learning and development.

A series of workshops, seminars and practical exercises will develop and extend knowledge and skills in relation to students' employability plans. Indicative topics are: research and information analysis skills, networking, pitching, preparing for interviews, developing resilience,

Scheduled learning: includes lectures, seminars, tutorials, project supervision, demonstration, practical classes and workshops = 36 hours.

Independent learning: includes hours engaged with essential reading, case study preparation, assignment preparation and completion etc. = 114 hours.

Part 3: Assessment

In the assessment students will be required to sit an in class test in which they will be tested on their knowledge and understanding of the UK court system and a range of legal instruments and laws.

The summative assessment is as follows:

Component A: In Class Test 50%

Test will test students' knowledge and understanding of ethical, regulatory and legal issues across a range of platforms that could impact on the work of journalists.

Component B: A Portfolio 50%

Students are required to submit a portfolio for assessment which will include the outcomes of set tasks throughout the module. Examples of the specific tasks to be included in the portfolio will be clearly defined in the Module Handbook.

These may include:

- Audio/Film recording of feature/s
- Written features
- Reflective Essay

STUDENT AND ACADEMIC SERVICES

These have been designed to enable students to develop and demonstrate for the purposes of assessment their acquisition of the skills, knowledge, understandings and experiences that will enable them to meet the learning outcomes for the module.

These forms of assessment enable the student to build and demonstrate their developing professional skills in communicating their work and ideas in appropriate professional formats.
