Part 2: Description

Overview: This module covers theories and practices of teaching and learning and professional skills and responsibilities. It also explores underlying themes for teachers and learners including context, values, wellbeing and relationships.

Features: Not applicable

Educational aims: Develop trainees' considered, evidence-based understanding of a range of theories and practices of learning and teaching to support all learners to make good progress.

Facilitate trainees to evidence critical engagement with issues relating to child/adolescent development, diverse needs, the contexts of their lives and the impact these have.

Support trainees to understand the importance of, and how to build, respectful, positive relationships with children and adults, underpinned by a critical exploration and articulation of their own values, experiences and the impact this can have.

Enable trainees to critically examine a range of professional skills, understandings and behaviours and their implications to their practice.

Provide opportunities for trainees to engage with exploration, analysis and articulation of wider issues and debates in education.

Part 3: Teaching and learning methods

Teaching and learning methods: You will engage with this module through a range of tutor-directed teaching and learning approaches, peer engagement and significant independent study. We prioritise learner agency and the development of learning skills and dispositions including research-informed questioning and debate. There is an expectation that trainees will link their academic studies to their professional development and practice throughout.

Module Learning outcomes: On successful completion of this module students will achieve the following learning outcomes.

MO1 Demonstrate a considered, evidence-based understanding of a range of theories and practices of learning and teaching to support all learners to make good progress.

MO2 Evidence critical engagement with issues relating to child/adolescent development, diverse needs, the contexts of their lives and the impact these have.

MO3 Demonstrate an understanding of the importance of, and how to build, respectful, positive relationships with children and adults, underpinned by exploration and articulation of their own values, experiences and the impact this can have

MO4 Evidence and examine a range of professional skills, understandings and behaviours and their implications to their practice.

MO5 Evidence exploration, analysis and articulation of wider issues and debates in education.

Hours to be allocated: 300

Contact hours:

Independent study/self-guided study = 228 hours

Face-to-face learning = 72 hours

Total = 300

Reading list: The reading list for this module can be accessed at readinglists.uwe.ac.uk via the following link

Part 4: Assessment

Assessment strategy: In Component B trainees select from a choice of themes. Through a considered engagement with theory and practice, trainees are encouraged to develop an evidence-informed approach to their selected topic recognising how their own values and beliefs have influenced this.

A reflexive approach is promoted by the opportunity in Component A to reflect on Component B with reference to their own practice, experiences and reading. Plagiarism is addressed by the expectation that Trainees will refer to their own practice and values.
