STUDENT AND ACADEMIC SERVICES

Education policy
 Themes in education including curriculum, social justice, creative approaches
 Education elsewhere – comparative approaches

Teaching and Learning Methods: You will engage with this module through direct teaching, small group discussion, debates and tutorials to support you to explore your chosen focus area. This will involve face-to-face and digital approaches. In this module we prioritise learner agency and the development of learning skills and dispositions including thoughtful and research-informed questioning and debate.

Part 3: Assessment

Allowing trainees to select one area of study to focus on with the support of a tutor gives trainees the opportunity to identify an area of professional interest to study in depth. This may be of direct relevance to their practice on placement and/or to future study.

Plagiarism will be designed out due to the individual nature of the study and the individual tutor support.
