Teaching and Learning Methods	The module uses lectures to provide an overview of topic areas, but emphasis is placed on workshops where problems/case studies/presentations/discussions generate insight into the usefulness of theoretical approaches. Private study involves students using a range of reading material including books, journals and professional publications to deepen their understanding of the implications of accounting regulation and the current issues that are facing the accounting profession. Extensive use is made of Blackboard enabling students to access course materials, lecture slides, useful research links, announcements, discussion boards and e-mail. Students are also encouraged to use the University iSkills website to support the development of skills appropriate to the requirements of the module.
Reading Strategy*	All students will be encouraged to make full use of the print and electronic resources available to them through membership of the University. These include a range of electronic journals and a wide variety of resources available through web sites and information gateways. The University Library's web pages provide access to subject relevant resources and services, and to the library catalogue. Many resources can be accessed remotely. Students will be presented with opportunities within the curriculum to develop their information retrieval and evaluation skills in order to identify such resources effectively.

Part 3: Assessment

Assessment Strategy	Formative assessment opportunities will be provided in workshops enabling students to assess progress and evaluate their achievement of learning objectives throughout the module. The summative assessment opportunities are designed to assess the full range of student skills and knowledge. Summative assessments comprising: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Component A: Three-hour closed book examination which covers a wide range of subject matter and includes both computational and discursive questions. This will allow students to demonstrate their practical accounting skills for a range of different business activities as well as their ability to discuss and evaluate issues and developments in financial reporting. - Component B: 2000 word (maximum) professional report which addresses and analyses a topical issue in financial reporting. It will require students to research and evaluate the issue and produce a report for a given stakeholder. This is more suited to a discursive assessment method which allows students to discuss a range of issues and demonstrate a critical appreciation of the topic. The structure of the assessments may be influenced by the requirements of professional accounting bodies.
