Part 4: Assessment

Assessment strategy: In TB1, students will be assessed by way of an in-class test covering the broad topics in linguistics outlined. In addition, students will choose one of the topics from TB2 to write a 750-word piece in the style of an accessible "feature article," as might be seen in a magazine or common interest website such as Babel.

In TB2, students will write a 1,000-word academic essay that covers two questions / topics made available from two pools: one on historical matters of language development, and the other on contemporary language use. Students will need to select one from each of these pools to demonstrate their understanding of concepts from across the semester.
