Part 2: Description
Overview: Module Entry Requirements: 120 credits of which 60 should be in Law. Educational Aims: See Learning Outcomes Outline Syllabus: The syllabus will be determined by the student who will choose a project topic and will work on that topic with a supervisor. The defining nature of the topic must be that it is of practical relevance for the development of the law in the future. Teaching and Learning Methods: As this module is a level 3 project module there will be an expectation that the student will have at least 3 meetings with the project supervisor and will arrange other contact as necessary. The initial contact to agree the title will take place in or before the first week of the teaching term in the first semester. Students will be supported in their learning through the virtual learning environment. The student will be expected to plan the project report having agreed the topic title. Meetings will address issues of structure of the report and the suitability of approach and discussions in relation to the materials being researched.

Students will be expected to email a short resume of three meetings to their supervisor. One setting out the agreement as to topic title, the second taking further the agreed plan and the third meeting to finalise the approach to the structure of the report. This third meeting should take place no later than one month prior to the submission of the report.

It is anticipated the contact with the supervisor will vary, but a minimum of three one hour sessions is expected. The remaining study on the course will be independent and project based.

Part 3: Assessment

This is a supervised project with a specific aim of researching a developing area of practical interest to the law, the medium chosen is a research report with an executive summary.

If a student is permitted an EXCEPTIONAL RETAKE of the module the assessment will be that indicated by the Module Description at the time that retake commences.
