UARANY-30-1 Introduction to Actor Training OR

UARN4U-30-1 Introduction to Physical Theatre OR

UARPDB-30-1 Introduction to Performance Texts and Contexts.

Features: Not applicable

Educational aims: See Learning Outcomes

Outline syllabus: Tutors will encourage students to develop original ideas into devised performances using a variety of practitioner-based approaches such as Lecoq, Frantic Assembly, and Complicite.

Practical exercises will be used in class to explore the devising process. In groups students will prepare and create devised pieces from a variety of narrative stimuli, e.g., news items, short stories, poetry, memoirs.

Part 3: Teaching and learning methods

Teaching and learning methods: The module will be delivered through three contact hours per week. The module will operate through a combination of seminars, lectures, workshop/practical exercises and self-directed groups according to the nature of the material being studied.

Scheduled Learning

There will be weekly taught sessions where participation from students is required. We will focus on discussing devising approaches to understand their efficacy in the creation of performance. Students will engage in practical acting exercises. Students will take part in showing works-in-progress to assist peer and tutor feedback in the process and determine the performability of the work. Students will evaluate their own and their peers work in the safe environment of classroom discussions.

Independent Learning

Students will be expected to keep a work book which will include their own reflections on and evaluation of the workshop as well as their own research and reflections on process.

In addition, students will have the opportunity to meet outside of class for small group rehearsals as negotiated within the group.

Module Learning outcomes: On successful completion of this module students will achieve the following learning outcomes.

MO1 An understanding of the techniques required to devise drama for performance

MO2 Practical skills relating to actor training methods associated with physical theatre

MO3 An ability to work in groups and initiate group explorations of the devising process

MO4 Time and project management skills in the preparation and execution of a devised physical theatre performance

MO5 Practical knowledge of the ideas and techniques of key 20th and 21st Century technical theatre practitioners associated with devised/physical theatre

Hours to be allocated: 300

Contact hours:

Independent study/self-guided study = 228 hours

Face-to-face learning = 72 hours

Total = 300

Part 4: Assessment

Assessment strategy: This is a project module and therefore has only one component of assessment.

It is made up of three assessed elements:

Critical engagement with practice in classes (10%). Critical Engagement is a student's preparedness for and participation in class-related learning activities. The preparations include rehearsal, primary and critical reading of a variety of texts (printed, online, screen media etc.), ongoing project work, writing exercises, and the generation of works-in-progress.

Two assessed group performances with individual rationales (45% each).

All assessments are given individual marks.

The assessment criteria for each element are available to students in electronic handbooks and via Blackboard at the beginning of the academic year. The criteria are module specific and aligned with the learning outcomes for the module.

Feedback is given in written form according to these criteria.
