Reading Strategy	Essential Reading Any essential reading will be indicated clearly, along with the method for accessing it, e.g. students may be expected to purchase a set text, be given a study pack or be referred to texts that are available electronically, or in the Library. Module guides will also reflect the range of reading to be carried out. Further Reading Further reading is advisable for this module, and students will be encouraged to explore at least one of the titles held in the library on this topic. A current list of such titles will be given in the module handbook and revised annually. Access and Skills Formal opportunities for students to develop their library and information skills are provided within the induction period and study skills sessions. Additional support is available through online resources. This includes interactive tutorials on finding books and journals, evaluation information and referencing. Sign up workshops are also offered.
Indicative Reading List	The following list is offered to provide validation panels/accrediting bodies with an indication of the type and level of information students may be expected to consult. As such, its currency may wane during the life span of the module specification. However, as indicated above, CURRENT advice on readings will be available via other more frequently updated mechanisms, including the module guide. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Armour, K. Part 3: Assessment

Assessment Strategy	The assessment strategy specifically aims to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Reflect the learning undertaken at specific stage. 2 Ascertain students' learning strengths, weaknesses and continuing developmental needs. 3 Develop students' ability to integrate theory and practice. 4 Develop critical and analytical skills to improve further practice. 5 Enable students to search for, utilise and critique evidence. 6 Promote students' individual growth and independent lifelong learning skills. In order for this to be achieved, assessments adopt a variety of techniques such as; coaching portfolio and practical examination. Assessment of practice is undertaken using competency based framework to demonstrate the integration of theory and practice. In line with the College's commitment to facilitating equal opportunities, a student may apply for alternative means of assessment if appropriate. Each application will be considered on an individual basis taking into account learning and assessment needs. For further information regarding this please refer to the VLE.
