Teaching and Learning Methods: Students can expect 3 hours of contact time each week, 36 hours for the module as a whole. Students will attend one whole-group lecture, one 'lectorial' and one workshop session each week.

Core contact: Lectures and Seminars:

Lectures will focus on core material, with a particular focus on theory and its application. Most seminars will focus on investigating and practising the lecture material. Students will prepare answers in advance or in the seminar, either working individually or in small groups. Help, explanations and answers will be given in the workshop and/or through Blackboard.

Additional Contact:

In addition staff will be available during the semester during their office hours (2 hours a week) for face to face meetings. Queries and extended discussions with staff can also be approached virtually through e-mail.

Other Support (on-line):

Extensive use will be made of Blackboard for weekly guided independent study work; to support students' learning; to facilitate interactions between students e.g. for group project work and to provide feedback with quizzes and forums. Students will also be directed towards the University Library online Study Skills resources for the development of skills appropriate to the level and style of the module. In addition a number of e-learning resources will also be used.

Part 3: Assessment

Summative Assessment:

There are two different assessments for the module. Both are designed to allow students to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of the module's topics and content.

STUDENT AND ACADEMIC SERVICES

Component A:

Consists of an online open book 3 hour examination (2 hour exam in a 3 hour window), 2000 words equivalent . It will assess students' knowledge of core material and their ability to apply it to given scenarios.

Component B:

Consists of a 2,000 word individual essay on a current topic in corporate governance and accountability. This component allows the student to demonstrate competence in research skills, critical thinking, and writing. The title and topic will be announced at the beginning of the course to enable students time to conduct independent research relating to the topic.

Formative Assessment:

Students will be offered the opportunity to self-evaluate their knowledge and comprehension of the module's core concepts and topics using question banks drawn from various sources.

In addition students will be encouraged to reflect on their academic progress through regular attendance at lectures and seminars.

If a student is permitted a retake of the module under the University Regulations and Procedures, the assessment will be that indicated by the Module Description at the time that retake commences.
