Part 3: Teaching and learning methods

Teaching and learning methods: This will consist of weekly lectures and weekly workshops in both semesters.

The approach to teaching and learning will be student centred and use a variety of techniques to encourage independent thought, analysis and constructive criticism. Dialogue is promoted between student and lecturers, and between students in an inter-active relationship which emphasises the flow of information between students and lecturers.

Staff will be available during the semester within their office hours for face to face meetings with students.

Students will be expected to conduct research with both traditional and electronic sources and will be instructed how to do this, where necessary, within the module. Directed reading and internet sources will be suggested.

Module Learning outcomes: On successful completion of this module students will achieve the following learning outcomes.

MO1 Identify and define relevant European Union Law concepts, principles and rules.

MO2 Explain and interpret European Union Law.

MO3 Apply European Union Law to factual and hypothetical scenarios in essay and problem formats.

MO4 Analyse all elements of European Union Law to present a reasoned choice between alternative solutions.

MO5 Critically evaluate European Union Law in order to resolve problems and establish reasoned solutions particularly as related to sustainability and global citizenship.

MO6 Generate logical recommendations for resolving complex European Union legal problems.

Hours to be allocated: 300

Contact hours:

Independent study/self-guided study = 228 hours

Face-to-face learning = 72 hours

Part 4: Assessment

Assessment strategy: Component A (40% of module mark) will be based on a 1800 word coursework which will assess students' knowledge, understanding and powers of critical analysis in relation to topics covered in the first semester.

Component B (60% of module mark) 2500 word coursework. Written answer on a problem or essay style question or case commentary. This will assess students' knowledge, understanding and powers of critical analysis in relation to topics covered in the second semester. Moreover, it will enable them to show their mastery of research technique and the ability to synthesise the results of that research.

The workshops will enable formative assessment to take place in the form of activities based on problem scenarios, essays, and case commentaries.
