Reading Strategy

Students will be encouraged to engage with a wide range of academic and practitioner literature. They will be encouraged to make full use of the print and electronic resources available to them through membership of the University which include (but are not limited to) a range of electronic journals and a wide variety of resources available through websites and information gateways. The University Library web pages provide access to subject relevant resources and services and to the library catalogue. Many of these resources can be accessed remotely. Students will be presented with opportunities within the curriculum to develop their information retrieval and evaluation skills in order to identify such resources effectively.

In line with the 'flipped' philosophy, students will be directed to specific resources and expected to undertake essential reading prior to each session.

Essential reading

Students are expected to purchase or have open access to following text as it is considered core to the module:-

Attea ,T (2008)The Secrets of Successful Creative Advertising, Really Helpful Books, London

Further reading – Students will also be actively encouraged to seek out and engage with additional reading and resources to supplement their knowledge. A list of indicative textbooks and relevant journals is provided below but students are expected to recognise that these may be starting points only and that they should extend their reading as widely as is necessary to demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge

Part 3: Assessment
Assessment Strategy	Students are required, over the course of the module, to compile a portfolio of evidence that demonstrates their proficiency in a range of practical marketing skills outlined by the module's Learning Outcomes. Within scheduled sessions, students will have the opportunity to practice and improve their skill level but evidence of proficiency can also be drawn from any of the modules studied and also from extracurricular activities. Students will be encouraged to identify their personal areas of development and to set their own goals. They will then use formative assessment within this module and from modules across the programme as a tool to track their progress and reflect upon what actions have yet to be taken.
