Reading Strategy

All students will be encouraged to make full use of the print and electronic resources available to them and through systems such as UWE online.

Any essential reading is available in the Bower Ashton Library and will be indicated clearly in the module brief. The currency of information may wane during the life span of the specification, consequently current advice on readings will be available through more frequently updated mechanisms such as the handbook and intranet, these will be revised annually.

Under the university's Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) permit, reading packs with relevant chapters or excerpts from books will be given to students where applicable, supplied at the beginning of the module. Text excerpts from books published in the UK may also be available via UWE Online Digital Collections, where permissible, during the module period.

Part 3: Assessment

Assessment Strategy

This module is assessed 100% via component A: A body of work which should include evidence of the development and delivery of a self-initiated brief in line with student's individual professional aspirations. The body of work should include extensive primary and secondary research, critical analysis, idea development, creative experimentation, testing and contextualisation, participation in formative critiques and summative presentations.

Full assessment requirements and the criteria for assessment will be outlined in module handbooks. But as an indication of what will be assessed :

Students will be assessed on their ability to write and follow an appropriate design methodology that supports the design, development and delivery of an independent design project. Students will be required to evidence an extensive body of research (market, concept and ideas) and will be marked on the efficacy of its application in their design projects. Students will need to evidence a synthesis between their concepts, materials, processes, selected market and final forms. Students will be required to produce a final collection / series of appropriate outcomes. Students will need to evidence a rigorous process of testing, experimentation and creative problem solving in the realisation of their ideas and outcomes. Communication, visually, verbally and in writing will need to be of a professional level.

	Within the Body of work students are expected to present evidence of work which demonstrates engagement with the minimum number of contact hours for the module, as well as the minimum number of independent study hours. Individual creative development and evidence of independent study time will form part of the formative and summative assessment processes. Feedback at formative and summative assessment points (verbal and/or in writing) provides students with a clear understanding of the level of their achievement, their progress and advice about how this can be improved. Assessment strategies within the programme that this module contributes to reflect the Faculty of Art, Creative Industries and Education's philosophy which considers assessment to be part of the learning process. Formative and summative assessments are regarded as positive learning tools and feedback from assessment offers students clear guidance with regard to future development. Assessment strategies support students understanding of their learning process and are designed to build on a pro-active approach to learning. Self and peer evaluation constitute an important part of formative assessment. Formative and summative assessments are designed to provide the opportunity for students to understand and reflect upon their achievements and to support the monitoring of progress by tutors and students. Assessment methods used are varied in demonstrating achievement to both academic and industry stakeholders, and form a coherent programme of assessment which is designed to offer students the maximum opportunity to demonstrate the skills, knowledge and experience that they have gained through the course of study, as well as to support ongoing and continuous improvement in their individual creative practice and development as practitioners. Forms of assessment used as part of this module include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Presentation and participation in studio-critique (formative)</li> <li>• Portfolio review and assessment (formative/summative)</li> <li>• Group and individual visual/verbal presentations (formative)</li> <li>• Peer and self-assessment (formative and summative)</li> <li>• Evaluative and reflective outcomes, including visual, verbal and written (formative and summative) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Feedback (verbal and/or in writing) at regular points throughout the module provides students with a clear understanding of their progress and advice about how this can be improved.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
