Part 2: Description

Overview: Not applicable

Features: Not applicable

Educational aims: The purpose of the module is to give students a sound understanding of how to conduct a conference with a client, and to carry out that conference.

Outline syllabus: The module covers communication skills, questioning technique, case analysis and how to advise the client. It draws on legal knowledge gained in other modules to enable the student to advise accurately and evaluate the facts and evidence in the case.

Part 3: Teaching and learning methods

Teaching and learning methods: The module is taught via practical seminars involving the conduct of a conference, face to face feedback lectures and online demonstrations. The tutor will offer students oral and written feedback following role play exercises, which feedback is wholly referable to the assessment criteria. Sessions are recorded on Panopto to enable students to review and learn from the exercises.

Module Learning outcomes: On successful completion of this module students will achieve the following learning outcomes.

MO1 Apply legal knowledge in the interests of the client

MO2 Evaluate a set of facts in order to advise on a course of action

MO3 Develop a professional and effective relationship with a client in a criminal law context

MO4 Compose advice that is clear and accurate

Hours to be allocated: 100

Contact hours:

Independent study/self-guided study = 83 hours

Face-to-face learning = 17 hours
