Section 2: Programme Overview, Aims and Learning Outcomes

Part A: Programme Overview, Aims and Learning Outcomes

Overview: The BA (Hons) Marketing offers students a current and integrated business education covering the main disciplines and operational areas of business, but with a strong focus on the discipline of marketing. Marketing is one of the most important and dynamic of all business disciplines. Its focus on the understanding of customer needs and the delivery of customer satisfaction effectively and efficiently makes marketing central to any successful business. This programme enables students to acquire relevant marketing and business knowledge and skills so that they can make an early and developing contribution in a range of organisational roles, but particularly brand management and other marketing roles, and acquire a further basis for life-long learning.

Educational Aims: This Programme aims to enable students to:

Study organisations, their management and the changing external environment in which they operate.

Acquire appropriate marketing and marketing-related knowledge and understanding.

Prepare for a career in a range of business and management roles, but with particular reference to marketing roles.

Experience and reflect on working in an organisation.

Contribute to society at large by enhancing life-long learning skills, global awareness and personal development.

The programme also aims to support the UWE Bristol widening participation strategy by enabling students to undertake a foundation year before progressing to level one of the programme.

All students will be required to take one of a group of modules at level three which have a particular emphasis on the development of graduate attributes embedded in experiential activity which is CV enhancing and “real world”, engaging students beyond the campus.
