Section 2: Programme Overview, Aims and Learning Outcomes

Part A: Programme Overview, Aims and Learning Outcomes

Overview: The programme brings together a developed knowledge of history with an application of this knowledge to industry-facing scenarios and real-world tasks.

Educational Aims: Students of the History programme will understand the basic concerns of this discipline, which deal with the ideas, motivations, and interactions between individuals, organisations and societies in the past.

They will share the common critical, conceptual and analytical skills developed by all graduates of the History programme.

They will be introduced to the development of the discipline and of the variety of approaches adopted by its practitioners.

They will be able to: engage in close reading and critical evaluation of primary sources of various kinds; feel confident in contributing to intellectual debates; analyse and evaluate the arguments of others; formulate and effectively communicate their own arguments in both oral and written modes; and to undertake independent research.

The students' degree work on this programme should encourage them to envisage themselves as contributing to the cultural life of the academic community and beyond.

Programme Learning Outcomes:

On successful completion of this programme graduates will achieve the following learning outcomes.

Students choosing the Level 3 option module History in the Public Space will be expected to participate in a placement equivalent of 20 days work experience. This may operate as a block, or as one day per week depending upon the requirements of the placement organisation. Placement as a block enables students to carry out the work outside of the teaching timetable (e.g.during vacations) whilst a one day per week placement allows students to take other modules without interference. The exact timing of the placement will be decided before allocation to students so that they are fully aware of commitment requirements.

As there is no expectation that students will be paid for their work, placements will normally take place in the Bristol area. Placement organisations will be made aware that any additional travel should be covered at their own expense.
