Part 2: Educational Aims of the Programme
Broad Aims of the Creative and Professional Writing undergraduate modular scheme: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to provide an opportunity to develop a writing practice within the writing industries and related areas; to provide an experience of higher education in writing, and its related areas, that offers students choice and independence in determining their abilities and ambitions; to equip students with the intellectual, practical, critical and creative skills necessary to locate themselves and their practice within professional, social, historical and cultural contexts; to deliver key transferable and professional practice skills as an integrated part of the curriculum; to respond to the demands of a specified industry; namely writing and its related areas; to equip students with the necessary understanding of research techniques and appropriate methodologies; to sustain an environment in which individual students may realise their full potential. Specific Aims of the Creative and Professional Writing undergraduate modular scheme.

Part 2: Educational Aims of the Programme

The Creative and Professional Writing programme aims to enable students to:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of writing through practical and contextual research and exploration;
- Generate and test creative ideas, concepts, proposals, solutions and arguments in response to set briefs and / or as self-initiated activity;
- Develop the capacity to be experimental and innovative in their approach to their work through a thorough understanding of research and practice;
- Demonstrate an understanding of the interrelationship between the demands of industry and the development of creative work appropriate to that industry;
- Implement a process of critical reflection, analysis and evaluation in the development of practice;
- Implement an individual response to the subject area through considered intellectual, practical and creative development;
- Develop the intellectual, critical, technical, practical and key/transferable skills appropriate to the discipline;
- Gain the transferable skills necessary to be able to work effectively and creatively as a professional writer and in associated creative and cultural industries;
- Demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between writing in a Higher Education context and writing in an industry context;
- Develop opportunities to gain industry/work related experience as part of the curriculum.

Level 0 consists of four year-long 30 credit modules in which the main focus is on the acquisition both of appropriate academic skills and of an awareness of the relevance to their future pathway in English Literature, English Literature with Writing, English and History, English Language and Literature, History, English Language and Linguistics, Creative and Professional Writing, Media and Cultural Production, Media Culture and Communication, Film Studies, Film Studies and Literature, Liberal Arts, Broadcast Journalism, Journalism and Public Relations, or Media and Journalism. Academic Skills in Arts and Humanities (UPCNA7-30-0) will act as a “spine” to the year, supporting the other three modules through a variety of assessment methods. Students will be encouraged to develop as reflective learners and to understand the importance of the UWE graduate attributes. The teaching methods are designed to engage students and develop their core skills and confidence.

Programme requirements for the purposes of the Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR)

An interdisciplinary programme that gives students the skills to be effective, confident and creative communicators across a range of traditional and new writing outlets, as well as independent project managers and innovative problem-solvers. The course develops students’ artistic flair and technical sophistication, and enables them to reflect critically and constructively on their own creative practice, as well as on the literary and cultural contexts of their writing. Benefiting from the involvement of industry professionals, students gain realistic expectations of the world of work, including specialist knowledge and an understanding of the transferability of their skills.

Placement Year
 Students on the sandwich route (SW) must undertake and pass a work placement:
 During this time students must complete the 30 credit level 3 module, Professional Development on Placement UPNNA5-30-3
 This module assesses the student’s personal development, from the experience of placement and their ability to identify issues relevant to their Placement’s organisational context and to then frame, scale and position a critical work-based enquiry relevant to the specialism of the degree.
 This provides a rich process in which student can make links between theory and practice, reassess themselves and confront the challenges of carrying out a role in a new organisation whilst knowing that they will have the opportunity to be supported if there is a problem and that they will be returning to the programme for a further period of reflection and learning after the placement is completed.
To be eligible for Placement students would normally be expected to have passed a minimum of 210 credits

	Compulsory Modules	Optional Modules	Interim Awards
Level 3	UPNN6N-30-3 Professional Portfolio Development	90 credits to be chosen. Students who have completed a Placement (and passed the relevant modules) are required to select two options up to a maximum credit value of 60 credits. UPNN6L-30-3 A Career in Fiction – Publishing, Self-publishing and Promotion UPNN6M-30-3 Copywriting – The Professional Nexus UPNN6P-30-3 The Working Scriptwriter – Commissions, Briefs and Audiences	BA Creative and Professional Writing Credit requirements 300

Part 8: Reference Points and Benchmarks

This programme has been developed in relation to the following reference points:

- QAA UK Quality Code for HE
- -Framework for higher education qualifications (FHEQ)
- QAA Draft Benchmark Statement for Creative Writing (2015)
- Qualification characteristics for Foundation degrees
- Strategy 2020
- University policies
- Feedback from alumni
- Feedback from industry professionals
- Student Feedback SRSF meetings
- Staff Feedback via programme reports, module specs, formal & informal meetings
- EE comments/reports
- Diversity and Disability profiles (sector-wide and department specific)
- Prospective students through Open Day consultation 2014/15

Staff are actively involved in their own practice and knowledge exchange activities with partnerships across a range of commercial and non-commercial organisations within the writing industries and other creative industries, and this 'in-house' expertise has informed the development of the programme.

The programme structure, curriculum content, professional skills and industry engagements have been successfully scrutinised by a professionally engaged external examiner and HE Teaching, Learning and Assessment in Creative and Professional Writing specialist. This scrutiny has been enhanced by the regular professional engagement of industry practitioners. The Creative and Professional Writing programme - along with other programmes in the Department of Arts and Cultural Industries - continually reassesses its professional currency via outward engagement, live commissions and industry events.
